Appendix D

Criteria for Validation of Questionnaire

1. The questions meet the purpose of the study.
2. The questions are unambiguous and clearly stated.
3. The questions are sufficient to collect the necessary data.
4. The questionnaire looks valid to those who are going to use it.
5. The questions are appropriate and factual.
6. The language used is appropriate to the respondents.
7. Each question has just one thought.
8. Directions are clear and complete.
9. The questionnaire is objective.
10. The questionnaire is easy to tabulate and interpret.