

May 13, 2022

High School students participated in the mini symposium STARS in STEM and materials science hands-on workshops (minibots and false stained glass).

